Education Sessions

Education sessions are restricted to a maximum of 30 people per session inclusive of children attending, adults and siblings. We currently have capacity to run one session per time slot. Education sessions do not need to be prebooked but are on a first-come, first-served basis. The sessions are based on the theme for that day and are delivered by the Hertfordshire Zoo education team in 'Base Camp'. The sessions run at the following times

11:00am

12:00pm

1:00pm

Learners with additional needs

Hertfordshire Zoo is an inclusive zoo for all. In order for our educators to provide the best learning experience possible for your children, please let us know if your children have additional requirements that would support their learning throughout their education session.

Learners with Additional Needs

Information

- Each session has a maximum of 30 people inclusive of children attending, siblings and adults.
- Full terms and conditions can be found below.
- Siblings are welcome to attend the education sessions but to ensure a positive learning environment, must not disrupt the workshop or may be asked to leave.
- Parents/carers must remain with their children at all times during the education sessions and across the park.
- No food or drink is allowed to be consumed in our education classroom 'Base Camp'.
- Sessions are on a first come first served basis, if a session is full you are still able to enjoy the park at your leisure.
- Sessions will start promptly at the designated time and venue. We will be unable to welcome any late comers to the sessions.
- With the reduced booking rate, access to Tumble Jungle and Boulders Beach will not be possible during these days, for anyone attending the Home Educator Days.
